

Madiba is searching for an Intern (m/f/d) for the
Consulting Unit – Bonn/NRW

About Madiba Consult

Madiba Consult GmbH is an international consulting firm specializing in economic development and international cooperation in emerging and transformation economies. Inspired by the values of Nelson Mandela, we combine entrepreneurial thinking, social responsibility, and innovative consulting approaches to support sustainable economic development and institutional capacity building worldwide. We increasingly integrate digital tools and AI-supported methods to enhance research, proposal development, and knowledge management within our consulting work.

Our Consulting Unit designs and implements consulting and capacity-building projects for international partners and public institutions, including the German Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Climate Action (BMWE), the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ), the German Federal Foreign Office, and the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ).

Our work focuses particularly on the Middle East and North Africa (MENA), while also supporting potential projects and partnerships in Africa and Eastern Europe.

To support our growing portfolio of international consulting projects, we are looking for a highly motivated intern to join our team in Bonn.

Your responsibilities

- Support project management and proposal preparation activities across the consulting project cycle
- Assist in the conceptual development and preparation of international consulting projects
- Support the preparation of technical and financial proposals for international tenders (e.g., GIZ and EU projects), including drafting workplans, time schedules, stakeholder analyses, and proposal inputs
- Support the consulting team in coordinating proposal inputs from experts and partners during proposal preparation processes
- Conduct background research and analytical inputs for consulting projects and proposal development
- Identify and coordinate international experts and consultants
- Support consulting activities related to projects in MENA, Africa, and Eastern Europe
- Contribute to project reporting, documentation, and knowledge management
- Contribute to the digitalization and automation of consulting workflows, including the use of AI-supported research, data analysis, and proposal development tools

Your profile

- Currently enrolled in or recently graduated from a degree program in Business, Economics, Political Science, International Relations, Development Studies, Law, Social Sciences, or related fields
- Strong interest in international consulting, development cooperation, and economic policy

- Excellent analytical and research skills
- Fluent English (written and spoken)
- Arabic language skills are highly desirable
- German is an advantage
- Strong IT skills, especially MS Office; interest or experience with AI-supported tools for research, data analysis, or productivity is a must
- Structured, proactive, and reliable working style
- High intercultural competence and international mindset
- International experience is an advantage

What we offer

- Hands-on experience in international consulting and development cooperation
- Exposure to consulting projects across MENA, Africa, and Eastern Europe
- Opportunity to work with international experts, institutions, and project partners
- A dynamic, international, and collaborative working environment
- Practical insights into proposal development, project management, and international cooperation
- Structured onboarding

Internship details

- Location: Bonn, Germany
- Duration: 3 months (mandatory or voluntary internship during studies)
- Start Date: Flexible
- Compensation: Internship allowance
